It is essential to know and understand whether you are married IN or OUT of community of property. South African and Foreign laws differ from one another and in this flow chart provided by Annabelle da Costa, you will be able to determine your legal property rights depending on your marriage laws.

