

If either the buyer or the seller in your property transaction is not a South African resident, there are certain essential elements you need to consider.

This is an informational video for estate agents and is not intended as legal advice. Please contact us for legal advice for your specific instalment sale agreement if the buyer or the seller is not a South African resident.